

Junior .Net Software Developer - JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title: Junior Software Developer – C# .Net

Group: Software Development

Salary Band: TBC

Reports to: TBC

ROLE PURPOSE

The post holder will help to develop, release, maintain and support software and systems at CCDC as part of the C#/.Net development team.

The post holder will satisfy the need for a versatile software developer to work on a wide range of CCDC software services and systems. This is a junior-level role. The CCDC will offer attractive training and career progression opportunities.

MAIN DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Develop software and services, including efficient searching and maintenance of chemical databases.
2. Provide user access to CCDC services and data through the development of:
 - Web User Interfaces.
 - Application Programming Interfaces.
 - Web Services and Web Applications.
3. Release and maintain software for use both internally at CCDC and externally by users.
4. Adhere to software development practices and standards adopted at CCDC.
5. Assist technical support when required.
6. Work with scientists and users at CCDC to translate user requirements into software features.

This job description and person specification are only an outline of the tasks and responsibilities required for the role. The job holder will carry out any other duties as may be reasonably be required by their line manager.